

The Lakeside

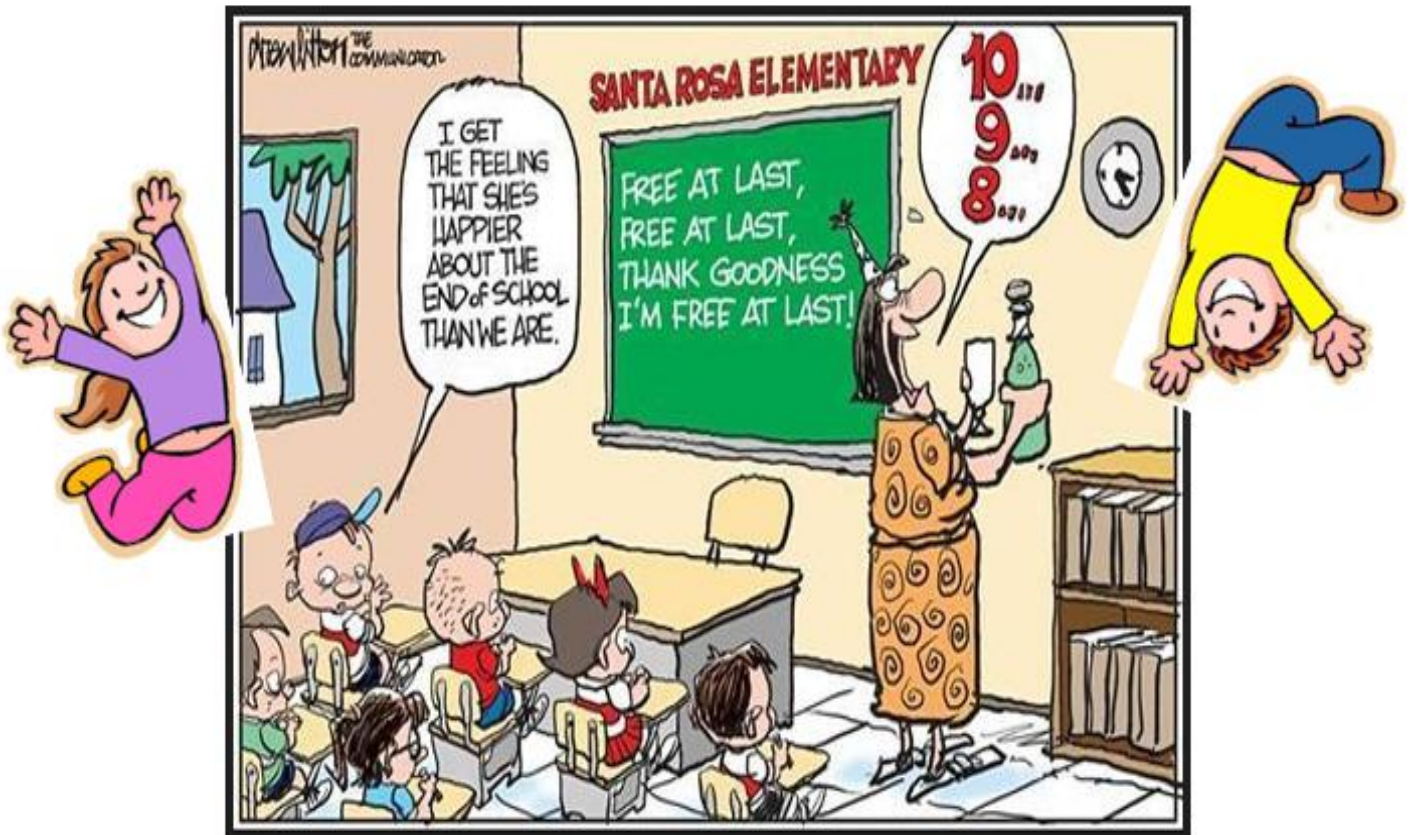

Message in a bottle

Verse of the day for Monday May 18, 2026 - Psalm 27:4

One thing I ask of the LORD, this is what I seek: that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of the LORD and to seek him in his temple.

Read Psalm 27 for meditation and inspiration.

THE SCHOOL 25/26 YEAR IS ENDING

Dear Lakesiders and friends,

Whenever we come to the end of a school year, there is always the question about just how much the students learned this year and will they retain it throughout the summer break.

Here are some students that at least their teacher won't forget the answers they have.

Teacher: How old is your father?

Kid: He is 6 years.

Teacher: What? How is this possible?

Kid: He became a father only when I was born.

(Logic!! This was quick on his feet)

Teacher: Maria, go to the map and find North America.

Maria: Here it is.

Teacher: Correct! Class who discovered America

Class: Maria!

Teacher: Glenn, how do you spell crocodile

Glenn: K-R-O-K-O-D-I-A-L

Teacher: No, that's wrong

Glenn: Maybe it is wrong, but you asked me how I spell it.
(love this child who spells much like I do!)

Teacher: Donald, what is the chemical formula for water?

Donald: H I J K L M N O

Teacher: What are you talking about?

Donald: Yesterday you said it's H to O.

Teacher: Clyde, your composition on "My Dog" is exactly the same as your brother's.
Did you copy his?

Clyde: No, sir; it's the same dog.
(Don't you just love this little guy!)

Teacher: Harold, what do you call a person who keeps on talking when people are no longer interested?

Harold: A teacher.

(I am glad Harold did not say a preacher)

I am not sure that summer school will bring those students up to where they need to be academically.

Jesus was always challenging people to remember what they have read from the Scripture. In Matthew 22:15-30, Jesus has forcefully corrected a collection of wrong assumptions held by the religious group known as the Sadducees. These errors were revealed by their question about a woman married to seven brothers, one by one, during her life on earth. Jesus has corrected their mistaken belief that there is marriage after death. Jesus answers with a clever statement that uses their question in proclaiming the reality of an afterlife which the Sadducees reject.

Jesus often debated with religious leaders by asking if they have read something from Scripture. This time, though, He makes it personal. He asks if they have not read what God said to them. He will then quote to them from the Pentateuch, the only part of Scripture the Sadducees accepts.

It is in Scripture that reality is shared and real life is displayed while at the same time we find for ourselves, The Way, The Truth and The Life who is Jesus the Christ.

In God's Word,

Roger
