Message in a bottle

Verse of the day for Monday January 12, 2026 - Psalm 40:3

3 He put a new song in my mouth, a hymn of praise to our God.
Many will see and fear the LORD and put their trust in him.

Read Psalm 40 for meditation and inspiration.

An Attitude of Gratitude

Dear Lakesiders and Friends,

It's clear that many people feel as though we are living in difficult days. Perhaps you are among them. In an apparent response to that mood, there was an amusing image portrayed in a popular magazine. Pictured in a department store is a shopper standing in front of an attractive display of neatly stacked pillows. The store clerk is pointing to the shelves as he says, "No. These are pillows for screaming into. You'll find our sleeping pillows on the second floor."

Of course, difficult days summon in us a variety of emotions. And while screaming into our pillows is far better than taking out our frustrations on those closest to us, the Gospel writers tell us, over and over again, that there is a Truly better way. Put your faith and trust in God's plan for living, and you will be blessed. Your faith will bring you happiness. Your faith will bring you fulfillment. Your faith will bring you ever closer to becoming the person God created you to be. Indeed, it is your steadfast faith that will transform your most difficult experiences into blessed days of fulfillment.

We remember that Jesus was baptized in the Jordon River by his cousin John to begin his ministry and mission and came to this moment of recognition and blessing from His Father in heaven. He was facing a temptation by Satan in the wilderness, his suspicion of the Jewish leaders, his slander by the religious leaders of his day, the betrayal by one of his trusted disciples, he came to see the hatred of the crowd calling for his death and the desertion of all disciples, family and friends in the end.

Yet, we hear the echo of his words, "Not my will but Thy will be done."

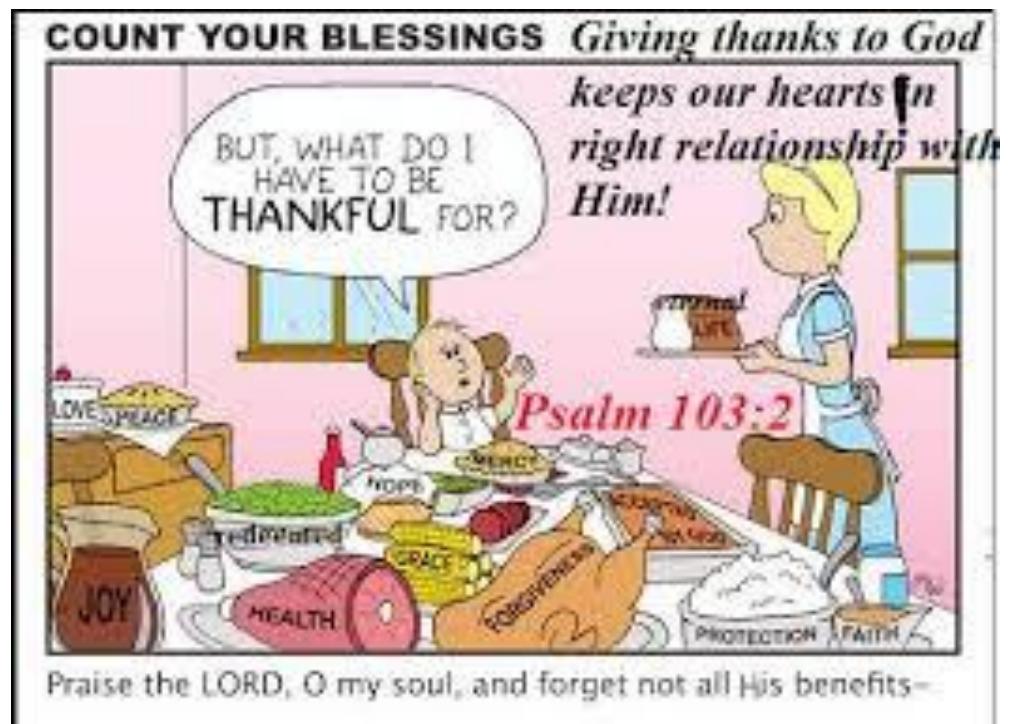

There is the prescription for ministry, for our lives and our calling for service by our Heavenly Father. We will be ready to pick up our own cross and Follow wherever he leads us. We must cultivate in our spirits and deed into our souls the attitude of gratitude!!!

An Attitude of Gratitude will keep us on track and send us up to the second floor pillows for sleeping not screaming.

Blessing in Gratitude,

Roger
